9 episodes x 60 minutes

Katsunori Takahashi, from the hit series Hitoshi Tadano, is returning in an exciting Friday night drama!

This time, he will play the role of an unknown hard-boiled detective that loves bourbon and jazz and will do just about anything in order to uncover the truth for his clients.

However, he is both weak and extremely nice to women. These two qualities will end up getting him into a lot of trouble because he will be suckered into taking on all kinds of cases from beautiful women that wander into his office.

This exciting drama blends the suspense that comes from investigating and solving cases with comedy and colorful adult situations. Each episode will contain one full story.
